Aptitude Solutions Announces New Sales Representative in the State of Georgia

Maitland, Florida -- (January 2009) -- Aptitude Solutions, a leading provider of innovative technology solutions for county government, including OnCore county recording and workflow management systems, tax deed filing systems, document management systems and court case management systems, today announced the hiring of a new Sales Representative in the state of Georgia.

Dwight Wood has joined Lender Processing Services' (LPS) Aptitude Solutions division as the Georgia Account Manager, responsible for software, services, and sales to the Clerks of Superior Courts in that state.

Dwight has played a key role in the county government arena since 1975. His tenure working directly with Clerks in the state of Georgia brings exceptional experience and relationships to Aptitude and the company's strong presence in the state of Georgia. Most recently, Wood's role as Clerk of the Superior Court for Hall County, Georgia placed him in charge of all areas of the courts and he was responsible for maintaining and preserving all civil court, criminal court records and real estate records. Wood now brings this knowledge with him as Aptitude Solutions' Georgia Account Manager, and his role will be to work directly with our existing customers and new customers in Georgia to provide the highest level of service and support for Aptitude's suite of county government software solutions for the land records and court offices.

"We're pleased to have someone so familiar with the functions in Georgia county governments join our team," said Tim Nemethy, Vice President of Sales for Aptitude Solutions. "Dwight will be an asset to all of the customers located in Georgia. He was deeply immersed in county government as Clerk of the Superior Court and therefore uniquely understands the needs of our Georgia client base. We expect him to make a significant impact on increasing the efficiencies of county governments and helping them better serve their constituencies."
