Glynn County Georgia Clerk of Superior Court Live with Aptitude Solutions' OnCore Recording System

Maitland, Florida -- (August 26, 2007) -- Aptitude Solutions, a division of Fortune 500 company Fidelity National Information Services, Inc. (NYSE:FNF) and leading provider of innovative technology solutions for county government, including OnCore county recording and workflow management systems, tax deed filing systems, document management systems and court case management systems, today announced the implementation in Glynn County, Georgia Clerk of Superior Court with complete recording software technology.

Glynn County Georgia represents the 3rd County in Georgia to implement Aptitude Solutions' OnCore recording platform, a system used by county government for electronic land records indexing and eRecording.

With Glynn County's growing population and the increased need to service the public with more speed and efficiency than ever, Glynn County looked to Aptitude Solutions to provide the technology that would make it all possible. Aptitude Solutions, originally incorporated in the state of Florida in May of 2001, has a long history in the Land Records Industry. With the ability to handle high volume recording, OnCore offers immediate turn-around for the customer's documents, improving customer service in every recording office.

Glynn County Clerk of Superior Court, Lola Jamsky comments, "Our office staff are quickly taking advantage of the many new efficiencies with OnCore, our new recording software package. Even our public constituents feel the system is fast and user friendly. The new technology offered by Aptitude Solutions will help our office for many years to come."

OnCore differentiates itself from other recording software with exclusive up-front scanning technology to reduce internal paper flow. The system offers document tracking components and automated document queuing to manage the internal flow of imaged documents. These features make the OnCore system truly ready for electronic recording and able to adhere to standards as they evolve.

President, Paul Miller explains, "Glynn County has offered a great partnership with Aptitude Solutions and solidifies our growth in Georgia. We look forward to maintaining a strong relationship and providing outstanding support for our friends in Glynn County."
